GLENNIE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Amy Pulver

Friend of the Library, formerly of the spice planet, Arrakis, is a Bene Gesseret Reverend Mother whose son, Paul Atreides (Muad'Dib), using the "witching" powers of the Bene Gesseret, eventually overthrew the House of Harkonnen and, with the help of the Fremen and the giant sandworms, came to rule Arrakis (and spice). From that position, with Amy's help, he ascended to emperorship of the entire known universe.

Our 10th Anniversary party was two days late due to the snowstorm but it was wall-to-wall "Bookies" and we all enjoyed Moira's pictorial remembrance of the past 10 years at the library, the long way we've come (and the food)!

WEAR YOUR COLORS!

Motorcycle gangs have their "colors". We, Glennie Friends Of The Library, have ours too. Visit your award-winning library and buy YOUR very own BOOKIE T-SHIRT!

COMING SOON TO YOUR FAVORITE LIBRARY!

Leaving Whiskey Bend
By Dorothy Garlock

Garlock does know how to turn a phrase and breathe historical detail into her stories, and this historical romance is good, light fare that is a quick read for when you need escapist fun.

Running Hot
By Jayne Ann Krentz

Krentzs fans will enjoy this fast plot outing and appreciate the teaser that readers have not seen the last of Arcane Society paranormal members, Grace Renquist and Luther Malone.

Mounting Fears
By Stuart Woods

It's up to President Lee—with some help from Holly Barker, Lance Cabot, and a few other Stuart Woods series regulars to save the world from Teddy Fay and loose nukes in Pakistan.

A Darker Place
By Jack Higgins

Famous Russian writer, Alexander Kurbsky, wants to "disappear" into the West. It's a real coup for the West except for one thing: Alexander Kurbsky is still working for the Russians.
