WELCOME TO HOMETOWN MEMORIES

Thanks to Mick Morrison's generous donation, CTL now has discovered a series of stories from Northern Michigan.

begun), when "indoor plumbing" was a luxury for the city folks. Our books are collections of true stories from those good old days."

Send us your story

We announce the new areas for story collection in January each year. Submissions are accepted from January thru April of each year and the topics for the year are listed each January on our website.

If you want to submit a story, we would enjoy hearing from you and will consider your entries for publication. Please read the 'How to Write Your Story' page on our website and the rules that we have in order for your story to be considered for publication.

For convenience, you will be able to send us the story 2 different ways.

- 1: By emailing us a digital copy as an attachment to the email
 - 2: By mailing us a printed version of the article. A submission form is included on our website.
- After approval you will also be able to send us photographs to accompany your story.

Book Deadlines

We accept new stories from January to the 15th of April each year. Call the editor, Karen Garvey, toll free, at (877) 491-8802 if you have questions.

This is only one of a series of books of memories of life in America during the last century written by the people who actually lived them. For example, this book contains reminiscences by Wilber Garrett and Geri Moody as well as folks from all over Northern Lower Michigan. There is another book in the series that covers the Upper Peninsula.

The following is an excerpt from the home page of Hometown Memories LLC that gathers and prints these stories:

"If you remember when soft drinks were a nickel, when we listened to drama programs on radio (television hadn't

COMPUTER CLASSES

Computer classes at the library have resumed and will continue until the end of May for the 2014-2015 winter season. Whether you have questions about your own computer or are a complete beginner, there are lessons to be learned. There is no hard fast curriculum. We answer your personal needs. Classes are one or two students at a time only so there's plenty of personal attention for your questions. Classes are Mondays and Tuesdays. Drop by for more information.

HELP WANTED

Are you tired of sitting around the house? Our library is looking for one or more individuals to do light maintenance around the library. If you've got a few hours a week of free time to donate, we sure would appreciate your help to clean and vacuum, spread a little salt on sidewalks in winter, water the plants, etc. Drop by!
