A SORROWFUL FAREWELL

It is with a great deal of sadness that we received the resignation from the library board of one of our original library group, Barbara Winn. Barb was there when the library was just a hole in the ground. She was there for all events and when the library needed anything. She sat on the Library Board since 1998 and even in failing health she always attended the meetings. Her mind is still sharp and she still thinks of the welfare of the library first and foremost. Her only reason for resigning was that she felt she could no longer continue her duties. We'll miss her greatly. Godspeed, Barb!

JUNE MEET AND GREET

Peter A. Pettalia

On June 16th, 2014 our library is hosting a Meet and Greet from noon to 1PM with State Rep. Peter Pettalia of Presque Isle who represents us in the Michigan House of Representatives. Mr. Pettalia's district covers the residents of Alpena, Presque Isle, and Oscoda Counties as well as part of Cheboygan County.

LIBRARY ROOF UPDATE

GOOD NEWS! The Herbert H. and Grace Dow Foundation of Midland has approved our library's grant request for assistance with our roof replacement project! They have given us $5,000 toward the cost of the new roof. This puts us about half way to the projected cost of the project.

THE MEET & GREET WITH
 PETER PETTALIA
 HAS BEEN CANCELLED.

Representative Pettalia serves as chair of the House Tourism Committee, and sits on the committees for Energy and Technology, Financial Services, Local Government, and Transportation and Infrastructure.

Plan on attending to meet Peter and talking with him about any concerns or interests you might have and learn his plans for improving our district.
