CTL ENDOWMENT FUND

In 2007 our CTL Endowment Fund grew to $6037.58 at year's end. So far in 2008 the fund increased due to our most generous friends:

2007 Total	$ 6037.58
2008
Jim & Toni Schweitzer	$ 100.00
Memorial donations for Joanne Wiebelhaus	$ 320.00
Memorial donation for Deanne Thelen	$ 1250.00
Memorial donation from Glennie Home Extension for Doris Ross	$ 65.00
2008 total to date	$ 7772.58

Remember, donations to the CTL Library Endowment Fund administered through the Community Fund for NE Michigan are forever! (www.cfnem.org) Our library applies for grants from our fund and receives these grants based solely on the interest to:

- 1.) maintain and improve our building, grounds and facilities
- 2.) increase our collection of books, magazines, cassettes, videos, etc.
- 3.) improve our technology (computers, internet, etc.)

GLENNIE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Kathy Wolka

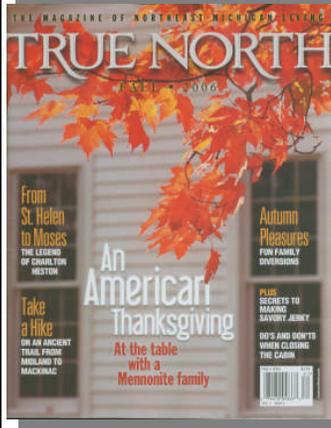

Few in Glennie know that Kathy is actually Russian. Her uncle, Captain Marko Ramius, had her assigned as a nurse to his Typhoon-Class ballistic missile submarine, the КРАСНЫЙ ОКТЯБРЬ. After becoming disenchanted with the smoking habits of Russian sailors, she and her uncle stole the submarine, eventually sailing it to the United States and up the AuSable River to Alcona Pond where it remains to this day in a hidden secluded bay.

TRUE NORTH MAGAZINE

On August 20th, Dave Vizard, Editor, TRUE NORTH MAGAZINE visited our library and spoke to the group about his beautiful magazine which is dedicated to the people and places of Northeastern Michigan. The magazine is full of interesting articles on travel destinations, restaurants, businesses and especially the people who live in, and love, Northeastern Michigan. Drop in at the library and look through one of the magazine's copies on display and enjoy all the breath-taking pictures. You'll love it! Thanks, Dave!

Wednesday, October 1st, is the day that the answers to our Fake Biography Contest are revealed. It was a challenge, to say the least. Come to the library see how close you came. The winner of the gift basket will be chosen too.

REMINDER
All past newsletters are available on the library website in full color and can be magnified for easy large print reading.

WEAR YOUR COLORS!

Motorcycle gangs have their "colors". We, The Glennie Friends Of The Library, have ours too. Visit your award-winning library and buy your very own BOOKIE T-shirt! The proceeds go toward purchasing our next section of book shelves as well as celebrating the 10th anniversary of our current library building on December 9th. Wear yours proudly!

LORDS OF THE SKY

On July 22nd, a representative of Howell Nature Center visited our library and presented a wide variety of live predatory birds to the audience of young people and adults in a seminar entitled "Lords of the Sky - The Exciting World of Birds of Prey" A falcon, hawk, owl and a live turkey buzzard among other birds, fascinated the group for over an hour as she spoke of their habits.

NEW LIBRARY BUILDING SIGN FOR CTL

Our library is well on its way to having our new building sign erected. The Glennie Friends of the Library as well as our most generous individual patrons have donated approximately $ 1000.00 as well as most of the materials needed build the sign. Now we need the volunteers to build the sign before the weather deteriorates. Get in touch with Moira and sign up!

NEW ARRIVALS AT YOUR LIBRARY

Silks
By Dick Francis & Felix Francis

If you're a fan of Dick Francis you'll enjoy another day at the racetrack with murder and mystery and courtroom drama. If you haven't read Francis before you might want to start with his novels Straight and then Reflex to get a taste of two of his best. In Silks the main character is a barrister and you'll get a most interesting insight into the British legal system

Collision
By Jeff Abbott

Collision is a fast-paced crime-suspense drama that will leave you looking for many sequels. Government intrigue, assassins and possible political scandals in the context of current events will make this a book you'll find hard to put down. What is the current oil/environmental crisis hiding? Whose interests are served? Look for a lot of action in a book that's hard to put down and probably will be a future movie.

Star Wars - The Clone Wars
By Karen Traviss

This novelization of the movie as well as the television series will be a delightful trip for those Star Wars aficionados as Karen Traviss explores the personalities of both good and evil characters from the movie and the TV series in much greater depth. Anikin Skywalker and a new character, Captain Rex, present the side of good and evil is represented by Darth Sidious, Jabba the Hutt and Dooku.

Black & White and Dead All Over
By John Darnton

A tyrannical editor at the 'New York Globe' (a thin façade for the New York Times) is found murdered with in the newsroom with an editor's "spike" in his chest. The investigation becomes a backdrop for a fascinating description of the newspaper world with all its internal power politics, petty competitions, journalistic tricks and the frenetic pace needed to publish a newspaper.
