The main fundraiser is the annual used book sale, held every year during Pioneer Days. There is also an annual Valentine's Tea and book sale in February.

Over the years the Friends of the Library have made several improvements and given many gifts to the library, including monitors and adjustable stands for the library's computers, and a locked cabinet for Polk Directories.

The Friends of the Library invites anyone interested in the future of the Negaunee Public Library to join our organization and share ideas for improving the library.
