Your institution is invited to join the UPRLC, Inc.

As a member of our 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, you will receive information about continuing education programs, along with grant and collaboration opportunities. You will have the opportunity to network and problem-solve with library colleagues from school, public, academic, tribal, health science, and historical libraries.

Any public, academic, school, tribal, government or private library recognized as exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code is eligible to become a member of the UPRLC. To join UPRLC, your governing board must pass a membership resolution.

Annual membership dues are determined each year by the UPRLC Board of Trustees; current dues are $75. UPRLC members receive reduced rates for conference and workshop registrations.

For more information, please contact Pam Malmsten at the UPRLC Business Office.
